

There should be no limitations set on the number of broadcast stations a company/individual can own.